What if I don't have insurance?

Novartis Patient Assistance Foundation, Inc. (NPAF) is an independent, 501(c)(3) non-profit entity that provides certain medications at no cost to eligible patients who cannot afford the cost of Novartis medications supported by NPAF.

Patients may be eligible for NPAF support if they:

- Are a resident of the US or its territories.
- Are prescribed a product on the NPAF formulary.
- Meet NPAF income eligibility requirements.
- Are uninsured or are a qualifying patient with government insurance who cannot afford their out-of-pocket costs and, in the case of Medicare patients, do not qualify for Medicare's Extra Help Program (Low Income Subsidy).

NPAF does not provide product to individuals having insurance associated with any type of alternative funding program that conditions, restricts, or adjusts coverage based on application to NPAF or to any other free goods program.

Please visit www.PAP.Novartis.com or call NPAF at 1-800-277-2254 to learn more about eligibility and how to apply.

To receive support through NPAF, applicants must submit all required documentation, including proof of income and evidence of Extra Help denial as deemed necessary. Only the patient or their legal guardian or caregiver may enroll the patient in the program. Health plans, specialty pharmacies, pharmacy benefit managers, and their agents and representatives are prohibited from enrolling patients in the program. Novartis Patient Assistance Foundation, Inc., at its sole and absolute discretion, reserves the right to modify or discontinue the program at any time and to verify the accuracy of enrollment information submitted.

Making sense of insurance terms

Trying to understand insurance terms can feel like learning a different language. Read on for a breakdown of common terms that may come up.

What is an out-of-pocket cost?

These are health care expenses you're responsible for paying. They're not reimbursed by your insurance provider.

Deductible: what you pay for a prescription before your health plan starts to pay for its part of the cost.

Say you have a $1,000 deductible and a medical bill for $2,000

You'll pay $1,000 and hit your deductible

Your health plan will cover the rest of the medical bill

Co-pay/Co-insurance: what you pay for a prescription and/or medical service. Often you'll have a co-pay, which is a fixed amount. Or you might have co-insurance, which will be a percentage of your cost.

Say you have medication that costs $100

You'll pay $20

Your health plan covers the rest

Your actual coverage will depend on your type of insurance and health plan.

Co-pay offer: financial support from your medications manufacturer for privately insured individuals. It aims to reduce out-of-pocket costs.
